

Wisconsin 2004 SONET Availability

Synchronous Optical Network (SONET) refers to a generic design standard that provides high-speed transmission over fiber optic lines. SONET organizes information electronically and transmits data, voice and video simultaneously. SONET can be installed point-to-point or in a ring configuration to provide redundancy in the event of a service interruption.

Map 3

March 2006
Wisconsin Public Service Commission